

Amendment to the
Copyright Transfer Form
regarding the
31st IFHTSE World Congress held in Cologne, Germany, in October
2026

In reference to the form named above and following on the next page, IFHTSE confirms that:

The authors having signed and submitted this form remain free to publish the respective paper and/or its content, data, pictures or other parts in the same or modified form in another journal or media. IFHTSE has no objections against such use of the respective work.

The objective of this copyright transfer is the publication of the paper presented in the event, specifically on IFHTSE's website, but not limited to this medium. The objective of the present amendment is to avoid any restriction of their further work or career.

Dr. Stefan Hock

IFHTSE Secretary General

Copyright Transfer Form

Manuscript/Presentation title (block letters):

Names and affiliations of all authors (block letters):

The following transfer agreement must be signed and sent to AWT before your manuscript and/or presentation abstract or slides can be accepted for presentation at the

and published in the conference proceedings. This includes print and electronic publications produced by IFHTSE and its member society AWT.

In the case of acceptance of the paper for presentation, copyright, title interest and all rights to the article(s) are hereby assigned and transferred to AWT and IFHTSE equally. The author(s) reserve(s) the following rights:

1. All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
2. The right to make oral presentation of the same material in any form.
3. The right to reproduce figures and extracts from the article(s) with proper acknowledgment.
4. Royalty-free permission to reproduce this article, for commercial and business use, e.g., placing the article or presentation on the company website for download.

By signing this agreement, the authors warrant that this manuscript is their original work, does not infringe any copyright, does not violate any other right of any third parties, and that any required clearances from their own organizations, contract sources, government agencies, etc., have been obtained prior to submitting the manuscript to AWT. If each author's signature does not appear below, the signing author(s) represent that they sign this agreement as authorized agents for and on behalf of all the authors, and that this agreement and authorization is made on behalf of all the authors.
